- 5) Claims, if any must be informed within 24 hrs. of receipt of material and all related documents to be submitted within 07 days as per insurance company requirement. No complaints will be entertained about shortage or transit breakage after that.
- 6) Force Majeure: Neither Party shall be liable for failure to perform its obligations under the Agreement if such failure results from circumstances beyond such Party's reasonable control (a "Force Majeure Event"). A Force Majeure Event includes, but is not limited to, fire, flood, typhoon, earthquake, terrorism, riot, unforeseen customs delays, unavailability of materials, destruction of production facilities, labour disputes, strikes, Lock-outs, Change in cost of raw material, epidemic, quarantine and other unforeseeable and unavoidable events. The affected Party will notify the other Party as soon as practicable and not later than 15 (Fifteen) days after the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate or cure the effect of the Force Majeure Event. In the event that the Force Majeure event continues for a period exceeding 3 (Three) months, then either Party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other Party. Neither Party shall pay damages to the other Party for termination of this Agreement due to a Force Majeure Event.
- 7) Dispute resolution: Any difference, dispute, controversy, or claim ("Dispute") which may arise between the Parties out of or in relation to or in connection with this Agreement, or the breach, termination, effect, validity, interpretation or application of this Agreement or as to their rights, duties or liabilities hereunder, other than a Dispute for which provisions specifically made in this Agreement, shall be settled by the Parties by mutual negotiations and agreement. If, for any reason, such Dispute cannot be resolved amicably by the Parties, within 15 (Fifteen) days of the date when the dispute arises, the same shall be settled by way of Arbitration proceedings adjudicated by a sole arbitrator appointed by the Goldi Solar Pvt. Ltd. The Arbitration proceedings shall be held in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, or any subsequent enactment or amendment thereto. The decision of the Arbitrator(s) shall be final and binding upon the Parties. The venue of the arbitration shall be Surat. The arbitration proceedings shall be in English language. This clause shall survive termination or expiry of this Agreement.
- 8) "If after effective date there is a Change in Law which affects the Cost of Modules as well as Delivery Schedule, the price and delivery schedule shall be revised reasonably, to the extent that such party has thereby been affected in the performance of any of its obligations under this document."
- 9) "In case of a Change in Law affecting the supply Price or the Delivery Schedule, the supplier or the purchaser, as the case may be, shall provide notice to the other, of such request, setting forth the proposed amount of, and the relevant details and calculations relating to, such change in supply price. Promptly upon, and in any event within 7 (seven) business days of the supplier or the purchaser as the case may be receiving such request (such date of receipt the "Change in Law request date") the parties shall discuss such proposed change in good faith and within 14 (Fourteen) business days of the Change in Law request date, mutually agree upon a revised supply price."
- 10) Order once placed can not be cancelled. In case of cancellation 3% advance forfeit

Jurisdiction

Subject to Clause above i.e. As per Dispute resolution clause, it is hereby agreed by and between the Parties hereto that for the enforcement of the rights of one Party against the another or any third-party claim(s) under this Agreement, the courts at Surat, India shall have the exclusive jurisdiction in this regard.
